goods furnished by Mr. KENNEY to the Indians were not bought by the Government, nor the goods at any time bought for the Crow Indians; and that no funds had been placed in his hands for the purchase of goods or for presents for the Indians.

From the above it will be seen that the charges against Mr. KENNEY have been false, and calculated to do him injustice.

The Five Points House of Industry

We have often felt an interest in the bold Philanthropic movements of the day, to be present at the opening of the above Institution. Here is our authority:

Editor Sun.—Will you be kind enough to inform me whether there is a line of packets running from the U. S. to any other port in the United States to Queensland, Australia? Also, whether a line of steamers runs there?

And, oblige.
